Dated this the 20th day of June, 2007

O R D E R

The petitioner faces indictment in a prosecution, inter alia, under Sections 406 and 420 I.P.C. Proceedings have been initiated on the basis of a private complaint filed by the complainant, which the learned Magistrate referred to the police under Section 156(3) Cr.P.C. Investigation is complete. Final report has been filed. Cognizance has been taken. The petitioner had appeared before the learned Magistrate. But consequent to his non-appearance on a given date of posting, a warrant of arrest has been issued by the learned Magistrate.

2. The learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is willing to appear before the learned Magistrate. But he apprehends that his application for bail may not be considered by the learned Magistrate on merits, in accordance with law and expeditiously. It is in these circumstances prayed that appropriate directions may be issued to release the petitioner on bail on the date of surrender itself.

3. It is certainly for the petitioner to appear before the learned Magistrate and explain to the learned Magistrate the circumstances under which he could not earlier appear before the learned Magistrate. I have no reason to assume that the learned Magistrate would not consider the application for bail to be filed by the petitioner when he surrenders before the learned Magistrate, on merits, in accordance with law and expeditiously. Every court must do the same. No special or specific direction appears to be necessary. Sufficient general directions have already been issued by this Court in the decision in Alice George v. Dy.S.P. of Police (2003 (1) KLT 339).

4. This application is accordingly dismissed. I may however hasten to observe that if the petitioner appears before the learned Magistrate and applies for bail after giving sufficient prior notice to the Prosecutor in charge of the case, the learned Magistrate must proceed to pass orders on merits, in accordance with law and expeditiously - on the date of surrender itself.

5. Hand over copy of the order.
